About my industry

The Infrastructure Construction and Civil Engineering industry develops, builds and maintains the everyday world around us. Think Rail, Power, Water Utilities, Highways and Housing – with so many different job functions to make the industry work!

About my company

Balfour Beatty are at the beating heart of society, providing the critical infrastructure we all rely on every day and projects at the heart of local communities. We shape the world around you and breathe new life into the places where you live, work and play. #ShapeEverything #ExpertEngineers #BuildingNewFutures
